PRYDE'S EASIFEED ALL BREEDS CHALLENGES

Exhibition Park in Canberra (EPIC)
Flemington Road, Mitchell ACT

The All-Breeds Challenges are the feature events of the National Capital Horse Show and are held “under lights” on the evenings of Friday 28th and Saturday 29th November 2008.

The Challenges are open to any sex of any full, mixed or unknown breed, of horse.

Categories for entry are the Halter Challenge and the Ridden Challenge and each of these is divided into a Junior Section (Horses 5 years of age and under) and a Senior Section (Horses 6 years of age and older). In 2008 two (2) of the Challenges will be run consecutively on the main arena each night. On the Friday evening will be the Junior Ridden Challenge and the Senior Halter Challenge, and on the Saturday evening the Junior Halter Challenge and the Senior Ridden Challenge.

The Challenges are adjudicated by a three-judge panel, each giving individual personal scores on a predetermined workout. Results are then collated by a third party to calculate the entrant's total mark. Each entrant is paraded alone with all other competitors out of sight of the judging panel. When all entrants have completed the workout they are collected in the ring for placement of awards.

Awards will be placed to 6th, prizemoney to 4th.

Entry fee per horse per section is $45.00.

Entries close on 10th October 2008 - no late, telephone or on-the-day entries will be accepted.

NO REFUNDS UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES.
